

NEW GAZEBO – The Cremona in Bloom - Communities in Bloom committee recently unveiled the new gazebo for the Cremona Nature Park. The project - started in 2014 - was funded in part by a recreation grant from Mountain View County and was achieved through the efforts of community volunteers and the support of the Village of Cremona. The project was spearheaded by area resident Alice Laine. Also unveiled was a commemorative plaque (inset) thanking contributors and volunteers. Photos courtesy Cremona in Bloom Committee.
